Home Library Service

Are you unable to reach your local library because you are housebound, have a disability or care for someone at home?

Hertfordshire Libraries will deliver books and recordings to your home free of charge.

What we offer

- Popular fiction books, classics or biographies
- A wide range of other information books
- A selection of formats such as large print
- Audiobooks and music on CD
- Information about other library services and events
- Signposting to other support organisations

Here's how it works

For more information, or to apply for this service, telephone our Customer Service Centre and ask to speak to your local library. The numbers are on the back of this leaflet. Alternatively, simply fill in your details on the tear-off slip opposite and post it back to us at the address provided.

We will contact you to discuss the kind of books that you like to read or listen to. We will then arrange for a library volunteer to deliver these to you on a regular basis.

Online library services

You can also access our free online services from home which include:

- e-books
- downloadable audiobooks
- magazines and newspapers
- our library e-newsletter and other information resources

All you need is your library card and PIN. If you are housebound and cannot get to a library to join, click here to apply for your membership card and PIN
